LENT~ Pastor Brian Dupre

Dear saints of Shadow of the Cross; the following are not my words, but the words of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod as found on its website www.lcms.org. Since the season of Lent is upon us, I thought you might like to hear what our denomination says about this time in the church year:

The name "Lent" probably comes from the Old English word "lencten." It refers to spring when the days lengthen. Early Christians remembered with special devotions the 40 hours our Savior lay in the tomb. The period of commemoration was later lengthened to two weeks called Passiontide. Still later, it was expanded to the 40 non-Sundays before Easter. Sundays were never fast days, but "little Easters," so the season is actually 46 days long. The 40 days likely correspond to Jesus' 40 days of fasting recorded in Matthew's account of His temptation. It is a season for self-examination, repentance and growth in faith and grace. Lent is also a time of self-sacrifice. "Giving up" something for Lent then becomes an opportunity for work-righteous sacrifice instead of genuine fasting. From the perspective of LCMS, "giving something up for Lent" is entirely a matter of Christian freedom. Scriptures themselves do not require this. However, if Christians want to give something up for Lent as a way of remembering and personalizing the great sacrifice that Christ made on the cross for our sins, then they are certainly free to do so.

During Lent, the Church's worship assumes a more penitential character. The color for the season is purple, a color often associated with penitence. The "Hymn of Praise" is omitted from the liturgy. The word "Alleluia" is usually omitted as well. By not using the alleluia--a joyful expression meaning "Praise the Lord"--until Easter, the Lenten season is clearly set apart as a distinct time from the rest of the year. Additionally, it forms a powerful contrast with the festive celebration of Jesus' resurrection when our alleluias ring loud and clear. But the penitential character of Lent is not its sole purpose. In the ancient Church, the weeks leading up to Easter were a time of intensive preparation of the candidates who were to be baptized at the Easter vigil on Holy Saturday. This time in the Church's calendar was seen as an especially appropriate time for Baptism because of the relationship between Christ's death and resurrection and our own in Holy Baptism (see Romans 6:1-11). This focus would suggest that the season of Lent serves not only as a time to meditate on the suffering that Christ endured on our behalf but also as an opportunity to reflect upon our own Baptism and what it means to live as a child of God.

Lent is here to remind us that the Fall of humanity opened a door through which this dreadful power entered and captured us, but the cross of Christ opened another door of grace and forgiveness that has set us free. Billions of people in our world are trapped in the first, but are unfortunately ignorant of the second.

WE PRAY: Dear Lord if billions in this world are ignorant that the cross of Christ opened the door to Your grace and forgiveness and has set us free from the dreadful power of sin, Satan, death and hell, then we have neglected Your great commission. Forgive us and renew us during this Lenten season so that we may sacrifice our time, treasure and talents for the expansion of Your kingdom on earth. Lead us to "Give up" our selfishness in favor of selflessness for the sake of those who do not know You, that they may taste and see the goodness of God in the salt and light of Your people. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen
God bless you all! –Pastor Dupre

They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Blessed is the king of Israel!"

Getting To Know Your Neighbors~

February’s neighbor: My name is Nala Emani Sparks Jones and I’m the President of SOTC’s Youth Group. I’m currently in the 11th grade and I attend Jalen Rose Leadership Academy.

This year my team and I have many things planned for the Youth Group. Some of our main goals this year are: raise enough money for us to attend NYC in 2022, organize a teen group retreat (summer of 2021), create bonds within the youth group, and to be helpful in any way we can within the church. As we are becoming older we want to be able to grow more in Christ and to serve him as well.

A Message from the CDC on Covid-19

precautions: (updated regularly)

<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/index.html> Get the facts about Coronavirus

Take steps to care for yourself and help protect others in your home and community. There is a lot of valuable information on the CDC.gov website. Information on: Cleaning & Disinfecting, Schools & Child Care, Colleges & Universities, Businesses & Workplaces, Worker Safety & Support, Parks & Recreational Facilities, Gatherings & Community Events' Health Equity, Tribal Communities and more. Check them out!

Here is what you should know about the virus's symptoms and what you should do if you experience them. The main symptoms often appear similar to the flu: fever over 100.5 degrees; a worsening cough; tiredness; loss of sense of smell; sore throat. In more severe cases, shortness of breath, chest pains, and pneumonia will be apparent."

Remember, that it's important to take precautions to protect not only your health and safety, but also the health and safety of others. Follow CDC guidelines. Stay in your home if you can. If you must go out, wear a mask, don gloves, and stay at least 6 feet away from others. However, note that thrusts of a sneeze with a fan or wind gust, the virus droplets can travel up to 20 feet. Wash hands often for 20 seconds. Clean surfaces with a disinfectant.

Stay safe so to keep others safe, we are our brother's keeper. Over the years that question has been asked numerous times. To that question, many today would respond with firm conviction, "Yes, Cain, you are your brother's keeper, and not only you, but each one of us is our brother's keeper."
